

Brew one of the 12 beers of Christmas found in Randy's Mosher's 12 Beers of Christmas or anything else you want to brew.

Each brewer gives a bottle of their beer to the other participating brewers and receives an equal number of bottles of each recipe in return.

Some of these are fairly big beers, and need some time and aging to be optimal, so planning and brewing early can be critical. If you're bottle conditioning, be ready to bottle in time, etc. Also, one of the beers (Juniper Rye Bock) is a lager, so a brewer with a lagering fridge will be needed for that one.

To be clear, you can choose one of the 12 Beers, but you could also just brew what you want. No pressure.

There is no obligation to participate in the bottle share, but of course if you don't contribute, you don't receive.....:)

Name	Beer
Jim Blum	Celebration IPA
Joe Nuttall	Chocolate Porter
Andrew Cannon	smares stout
Jim Kallos	Chocolate Stout
Jason Temple	Gingerbread porter
Chris Nama	Chocolate Coconut Stout
Cord Trammell	Scotch Ale
Jay Brantley	Belgian Tripel
Zach Voss	Christmas Saison